 It has been these last four years for the first time I really began to realize your trust, prayer and concern for the student.

 I appreciate all that you've

 Good luck always.

Class History

Freshman

A new, fresh experience . . . our first Homecoming started with Janet D'Amato as attendant . . . we tried for that spirit trophy but the upperclassmen were too strong . . . Our new class officers guided by Miss King as adviser . . . getting lost in the miles of corridors . . . But at last we felt acquainted with BHS. After INITIATION . . . "Oh come on, Seniors," Pebbles and Bam Bam? It seems like ages before we'll get to be seniors.

Tons of books . . . Too much homework a common complaint . . . We left grade 9 looking ahead to our senior year enthusiastically, right Nat?

Checking over our Freshman errors while we take our next step . . . Don't panic anybody but there's a bomb in the school . . . Chris McMahon as our Sophomore attendant . . . Still one goal in mind, to reign as seniors . . . "Hey Ellis, was that you on the senior court?" Wait your turn.

Time beat on stealthily as we enjoyed an experienced Sophomore year. But we needed to feel the power that the mighty Seniors possessed . . . 2 years down but 2 to go . . . looking ahead down the halls of success . . . We were going to have to gamble on our future!

Junior

The cafeteria, a place all of us mobbed to, to take all of those endless tests . . . The B.V. Batteries (an athlete or a tax collector) and later on College Boards . . .

Our third Homecoming with Bonnie King as our attendant
Then the Junior Dance added to our class success

The big one came in November Junior Prom "Over the Rainbow" Loads of crepe paper and hours of hard work helped make it another success Flowers, gowns, and tuxedos made us feel as if our day had come. Judy Orcutt and her escort reigned as king and queen for a memorable night.

We felt a calling to fill the shoes of the class of '69. We had to put our heads together and accept the responsibility that we were waiting for . . . Seniors, I think we've got it. "Just think Stew, it'll be a blast."

Senior

We made it, we're Seniors . . . The French teachers conquer BHS
 . . . One as the new Via Principal and the other as the Youth Council's new advisor . . . Football . . . New coaches Mathews and Fitzgerald . . . Tri-captains Ron DiMugno, Derik Pulito, and Drew Ellis . . . Prepared for a Championship team but oh well . . .

School spirit week . . . we yelled until we were hoarse . . . Mike Volz as our Mr Redcoat
The noisy senior motorcade.

October bringing the Berlin Fair . . . senior booth . . . Fool the computer . . . And Initiation . . . Guy and Marie running the slave market . . . Pete and his crew ready to devour any freshman in Senior Court . . . The wait was worth it, being a Senior is pure dynamite.

Homecoming 1969 . . . Chris was our queen with Gene Massiro, our youth council leader, serving as her escort . . . Diane Michalski was her senior attendant with Gerry McQueeney as her escort.

The cry of spirit rang out once more as B.H.S. found itself in a frenzied race to win the petition contest. Pens swung frantically . . . We gave it all we had but to cede first place to a much larger school . . .

The beginning of Spring told us that graduation was nearing . . . "Bye Bye Birdie" was chosen as our Class Play, then the Senior Ball and finally we found ourselves counting memories instead of days . . .

Steven M. Baker

AN OUTSTRETCHED HAND

Each of us was made by God
and some of us grew tall Others stood out in the wind their branches bent and fell Those of us who walk in light must help the ones in darkness up, For that's what life is all about and love is all there is to life

Each of us was made by God
beautiful in His mind's eye Those of us that turned out sound should look across our shoulders, once to help the weak ones to their feet

It only takes an outstretched hand

Those voted most apt to succeed are noted for drive we concede they'll always be best and surpass the rest whatever they choose as their deed.

Most Studious Debbie & Jim

Two students who just love to read from the bonds of ignorance freed their minds flying free and knowledge the key by which they have taken the lead.

Best Dressed Gail & Ron

These two never look like they're messed they keep their clothes spotless and pressed for no slobbs are they in their bright array Therefore we named them Best Dressed.

Most School Spirit Marie & Ray

These students are all for their school they make involvement the first rule in everything here
they show that they care their school spirit shines like a jewel

Class Chatterbox Cathy & Jim

These two seem always to chatter about what it doesn't matter for those who don't know it comes as a blow to hear their unceasing clatter!

Class Wolves Johna & Joe

These two students are known to be flirts with anyone in pants or in skirts they break many hearts with their practiced arts and for this they are called extroverts.

Most Cullible Gail & Dave

If told a preposterous lie that story they always will buy that they can't perceive what's meant to deceive is something they cannot deny

Most Creative Debbie & Steve

In Berlin there happens to be two students with souls soaring free and with their great gift morals they do lift when beauty they make others see.

Class Blushers Cal & Steve

when they are perturbed or if they're disturbed

and don't act let down
